

Convocation Ceremony Report: Bengali Department 2022

The Convocation Ceremony of the Bengali Department in 2022 was a momentous occasion marked by esteemed dignitaries, scholarly discourse, and the celebration of academic achievements. Held on 29th June, 2022, the program commenced with the arrival of dignitaries, setting a tone of grandeur and significance.

At precisely 1:30 PM, the academic procession commenced a procession that bore the weight of academia and the promise of future endeavors. Among the distinguished figures in the procession were the Honorable Education Minister, Shri Bratya Basu, and the Honorable Vice Chancellors of West Bengal State University and St. Xavier's University, Prof. Mahua Das and [Name of the Vice Chancellor], respectively. Additionally, the Honorable President of the Governing Body of SNCW graced the occasion with their presence.

The ceremony unfolded with a series of rituals and acknowledgments. Felicitations were extended to notable individuals, and a heartfelt message from Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee underscored the government's support for academic pursuits. The welcome address was eloquently delivered by Principal Urmila Ukil, setting the stage for the ensuing proceedings.

Shri Bratya Basu, in his speech, offered insights and encouragement, underscoring the importance of education and the Bengali Department's role in shaping intellectual discourse. Other guests followed suit, enriching the event with their perspectives and wisdom.

The pivotal moment arrived when the Vice Chancellor officially declared the convocation open, symbolizing the culmination of years of dedication and the beginning of a new chapter for the graduates. Certificates were conferred, marking the formal recognition of academic accomplishments. Father Felix, in a gesture of honor, presented medals to deserving individuals, embodying the spirit of excellence and merit.

Amidst a backdrop of anticipation and solemnity, students rose and took the pledge, guided by the principal's solemn recitation. This pledge signified their commitment to upholding the values of integrity and scholarship in their future endeavors.

As the ceremony drew to a close, the Vice Chancellor formally announced its conclusion, punctuating the event with a sense of closure and accomplishment. The national anthem echoed through the halls, a stirring reminder of collective identity and pride. With the departure of the academic procession and dignitaries, the ceremony concluded, leaving behind a legacy of academic excellence and the promise of a brighter future for the graduates of the Bengali Department.
