Concept Note:

In these trying times, we are going to take part in an academic discussion on pandemics hitherto remained untold in our regular teaching learning process. Before this world wide Covid-19 situation reaching a catastrophic level within a short span of time, we were rather apathetic to the profound effects of pandemics on societies as revealed in history. This webinar will help us to explore the impact of pandemics on societies with reflections on how these examples can be torch bearer to combat similar issues in the present scenario.
