Title: National Level Webinar on 75 Years of Independence: The Impact on Bengali Society and Literature held on 18th May 2022

Introduction: A national level webinar was held on 18th May 2022 to commemorate the 75th year of independence and discuss its impact on Bengali society and literature. The webinar was organized by the Department of Bengali and was attended by a large number of students, teachers, and experts from across the country.

Scope: The report focuses on the highlights of the webinar and its main themes, including the impact of independence on Bengali society and literature, the role of literature in reflecting social changes, and the future of Bengali language and literature.

The Impact of Independence: The speakers discussed the ways in which independence had shaped Bengali society and literature, including the growth of regional literature, the emergence of new literary forms, and the increased representation of marginalized communities in literature.

The Role of Literature in Reflecting Social Changes: The speakers emphasized the importance of literature in reflecting and shaping social changes, including the changing status of women and the growth of feminist literature, the representation of minority communities, and the rise of protest literature.

The Future of Bengali Language and Literature: The speakers discussed the challenges facing Bengali language and literature, including the need to preserve the language and cultural heritage, the importance of promoting regional literature, and the need to adapt to changing social and technological trends.

Conclusion: The webinar was a significant event that brought together experts and students from across the country to discuss the impact of independence on Bengali society and literature. The discussions provided valuable insights into the ways in which independence had shaped Bengali language and literature and the role of literature in reflecting social changes. The event was a valuable contribution to the ongoing discourse on the future of Bengali language and literature and the efforts to preserve its cultural heritage.
